

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Former Congressman MARVIN LEATH: "Country Current is the best country band east of Nashville!"

BOOTS RANDOLPH (Recording Artist): "These guys can play. Believe me."

CASA GRANDE (Ariz.) VALLEY NEWSPAPERS, INC.: "The clean-cut, professional and patriotic image that this group portrayed was not only a compliment to the country but also to your branch of the service."

AIR SCOOP (Toms River, N.J.): "The concert prompted the audience to standing ovations and the band to a delightfully long encore. Simply put, country music doesn't get any better than this!"

BANGOR (Maine) DAILY NEWS Letter to the Editor: "One of my most enjoyable evenings. Country Current was excellent...the best country and bluegrass music I have ever heard."

The late ROGER MILLER: "You better have your stuff together to follow a group like this."

GEORGE MICHAEL (NBC Sports Machine): "If I worked at WMZQ, I'd be playing [Country Current's] music all the time...you're in for a treat..."

SONNY OSBORNE (Osborne Brothers): "There's not a band out there that I'm afraid to follow...except 'The Country Current Bluegrass Group'."

NAVY BAND PATRON (Nevada, Mo.): "They have enough energy to float one of your ships."

SIDEWINDER DANCE CLUB (Columbus, Ga.): "Their entire program was both uplifting and soothing at the same time...this group represented the Navy at its finest—talent, showmanship, and patriotism."

FLAGLER COUNTY VETERANS ADVISORY COUNCIL (Bunnell, Fla.): "...Country Current is definitely an outstanding ambassador for the United States Navy. You can be justly proud of each member for they performed their mission in a thoroughly professional and outstanding manner."

RETIRED U.S. ARMY COLONEL (Calif.): "That small group presents a very positive image of the Navy. The Current is clean-cut, sharp in appearance, pleasant, friendly, aware that they represent the Navy, and has a positive attitude toward the service and their public relations function."
